10. [] Advised William McManus, of General Electric, that we would have an Agency speaker or speakers in attendance at GE's Seminar on Federal Government at their luncheon meeting on 22 March. Mr. McManus was pleased to receive this information and said he would send me a letter outlining the details of the seminar and including a program of last year's sessions. ✓

15. [] Talked with James Colbert, Economic Affairs Officer, Office of Soviet Union Affairs, Department of State, concerning the Department's proposed reply to Representative James Harvey's inquiry. Colbert said that although they had coordinated their proposed reply with Commerce, they were having some difficulty within the Department on certain parts of this response. He will make a copy available to us when it is in final form. He mentioned that Representative Ashley's Subcommittee, the Joint Economic Committee and the House Ways and Means Committee were all expected to be holding hearings which in one way or another would touch on this subject.
